Rev. A. V. Wilson will hold services in the park Sunday night if the weather is favorable.

For sale—Commode, bedstead, bed-springs and mattress, all nearly new.
Inquire of L. H. Battles.

The series of meetings held in the park was not so well attended as they should have been, on account of the extreme heat.

Next week we will begin the publication of an interesting serial entitled "Ray's Daughter," by that popular author, Gen. Charles King.

E. H. Knapp has bought the livery stable of Thos. W. Hiatt and will take possession next Monday. Tom has not yet fully decided what he will do, but talks some of going to Oklahoma.
We hope he will stay here.

A number of persons who ate ice cream at the birthday party of Mrs.
Keeling Thursday night were very sick shortly afterward and vomited severely. Some are quite well yet. It is not known what caused the sickness.

Congressman Burkett has received and accepted an invitation to deliver the address before the Nemaha county old settlers' association on August 17, at Nemaha City. The old settlers of this portion of the state secure a great deal of enjoyment out of these annual events and at each meeting they are addressed by some prominent person from the state.—State Journal

Mrs. W. W. Keeling was pleasantly reminded that Thursday was her birthday. Her friends gave her a genuine surprise party that night. Mrs. Keeling had no suspicion of the party and attended preaching services at the park. When she got home she found the yard illuminated with Chinese lanterns and a large number of friends present. The evening was passed in social enjoyment.

James Shiveley, of Aspinwall precinct, raised the champion wheat in this neighborhood, so far as we have heard. He threshed nine acres and on Thursday hauled it to the elevator and it weighed 383 bushels—an average of a little over 42 1/2 bushels per acre. He got 57 cents a bushel, his crop on this piece of ground bringing him $24.25 and a fraction per acre. He has thirty acres more of wheat which he stacked, a good part of which is just as good as the nine acres.

Great preparations are being made for the reception to Hon. Church Howe, who is expected to arrive at Auburn over the Missouri Pacific at 12:30 p. m. next Tuesday.

The Pawnee City, Tecumseh, Auburn and Johnson bands have been engaged.
The procession will form at the depot and escort Mr. Howe to his home.
There will be a basket dinner in the park. At 2 o'clock the procession will again form and Mr. Howe will be escorted to the park. There will be addresses of welcome on behalf of the city by W. H. Kelligar, on behalf of the county by ex-Gov. Furnas, on behalf of the state by Gov. Sayage, and on behalf of the country by J. Sterling Morton, and response by Consul Church Howe, after which a general reception will follow.

son.

News of the death of Elmer Erback, formerly of this place, has just reached his friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. August and daughter and Mrs. Alice A. Minick were Auburn visitors Tuesday.

Report has it that our city marshal was loosed and then limboed out at Auburn over Sunday.

Eph, Elias and Burr Loyd with their teams went to Wymore Tuesday to engage in railroad work.

W. S. Andrew sold his house and lot on the corner of 7th and Main streets to W. F. Thompson Monday.

A. M. Aldrich, manager of the Moler system of barber schools of Omaha, was a business visitor Friday.

E. F. Jeffers and Jim Roberts departed for Colorado Monday to see the sights and obtain employment.

Miss Arbanna Eaton, of Exeter, Neb., is the guest of her uncle and aunt M. and Mrs. A. Vandeventer this week.

Rev. J. Lewelling went to Scribner Monday where he will remain some time practicing the art of magnetic healing.

Elder Rowe, of Reckport, Mo., preached to a fair sized audience at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. M. McCombs, of White Pigeon, Iowa, a sister of Samuel and John Christie, came in; Thursday to make them an extended visit.

It has been mildly suggested during the week that we have a Sunday closing ordinance. Every citizen of the town ought to favor such move.

A controversy having arisen between Mr. August and the baseball boys over the land where their grounds are located, has been the means of getting our city mayor and city marshal arrested for trespass. Their trials are set down for 30 days hence when an interesting time is expected.

And now comes Governor Savage with his proclamation setting apart Friday, July 26, as a day of fasting and prayer that the weather conditions now existing may be changed when the fact is every man, woman and child in Nebraska has been praying for the past two or three weeks with a fair prospect of fasting a little later in the season.

All our farmer readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we this year make, which includes with this paper The Iowa Homestead, its Special Farmers' Institute editions, The Poultry Farmer, and The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal.
These four publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm home. To them we add for local, county and general news our own paper and make the price for the five for one year $1.35. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The four papers named which we club with our own are well known throughout the west and commend themselves to the reader's favorable attention upon mere mention. The Homestead is the great agricultural and live stock paper of the west. The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer published in the country; The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal is the special advocate of farmers' co-operative associations, and the Special Farmers' Institute editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published. Take advantage of this great offer.
